

Hockey Day

At Chapman Hill Skating Rink

You always wanted to play hockey but you don't know how to start!! Hockey Day at Chapman Hill is the perfect way. Check out our fun free day of gear and skating.

What is Hockey Day?

Hockey Day is sponsored by Parks and Recreation and Durango Area Youth Hockey Association. The ice from 11:00am- 1:45pm will be open to new youth and adult hockey players free of charge. All new or interested hockey players will have the chance to try on gear and get a free lesson from Midget youth hockey players. If you are current hockey player that has gear to sell or give away we will have table space for your equipment. For more info on Hockey Day please call Chapman Hill 375-7395 or check out the Hockey Day flyer at Durangogov.org. There will also be a BBQ social from 11:00am- 1:45pm so come on out to the rinks and check us out.
