LIFE IN DURANGO AND LA PLATA COUNTY

Steeped in Western charm, Durango is a virtual adventure wonderland boasting outdoor recreation from skiing to dogsledding, hiking/biking to horseback riding, historic steam train to hot springs and everything in between. Durango is the La Plata County seat and the business, education, governmental and cultural hub of southwest Colorado. Durango draws a workforce from throughout the region. The City boasts many great restaurants, good shopping and a robust downtown business district. It is the home of the Mercy Regional Medical Center, the main hospital of the area, a 4-year college, Fort Lewis College, the La Plata County seat operations, and a small manufacturing sector. Durango City covers 4.37 square miles and has a growing population of nearly 19,000. The air is clean and, though the region enjoys plentiful snowfall which blankets the ski slopes of Purgatory, the sun does shine nearly 300 days a year.

At an altitude of 6,512 feet, Durango captures the best of the Rockies. The rugged and picturesque San Juan and La Plata Mountains form a breathtaking contrast to the crystal clear blue sky. The air is clean and fresh as are the rivers - Animas, Florida, La Plata, and Los Piños - that have cut through the canyons and carved valleys in the vast mesas. Durango’s climate is considered ideal thanks to moderate temperatures and beautiful seasons. In summer, temperatures seldom climb above the high eighties and spring is characterized by afternoon showers which bathe the land and stimulate verdant growth. Fall brings the promise of "Indian Summer" and clear, dry, cool days - perfect for enjoying the outdoors. Winters are generally mild, sunny and dry with seldom a day of temperatures even close to zero.

Though set far from the bright lights of the big city, La Plata County enjoys contemporary amenities and a rich cultural history as well as the cohesiveness and caring spirit traditional in rural communities.

The County is considered "tri-ethnic," embracing Native American, Latino and Anglo cultures. With Southern Ute Tribal lands stretching across a portion of the County, residents and visitors have the opportunity to participate in annual celebrations and festivals.

With names such as Rio de las Animas, Escalante Crossing and Santa Rita Park, the region's Hispanic heritage is well-documented and the culture is celebrated with the arts and during annual festivals such as Fiesta Days and Cinco de Mayo. Fort Lewis College lends a spirit of progressiveness and youth to the fabric of the region as student involvement and enthusiasm is woven throughout the community. On campus, the growing arts facilities host the acoustically perfect Community Concert Hall, the world renowned Center for Southwest Studies and the Arts Center which showcases local as well as national artists.

One resident describes Durango as living “larger than its size, with a rich and creative community of artists, musicians, athletes, outdoors men and women, educators, and world class business leadership. From college to wilderness, from high mountains to sandstone desert, neither the people nor the environment will disappoint.”

From locally roasted coffee beans and award-winning handcrafted beer to gourmet foods and farm-fresh produce, cheeses and meats, great food is a given in Durango. Unique dining establishments rival those of the big city. In fact, Durango has more incredible locally owned restaurants per capita than San Francisco. In season, the bustling farmers market is not only a source for fresh, natural and organic foods, but a community reunion as well.

Durango is a mountain town with a tight-knit community. The locals tend to be highly educated and civic minded. They are friendly and highly value easygoing lifestyles of recreation (i.e. outdoor activities, events and festivals) and community engagement.

Athletic endeavors are a natural part of the lifestyle including downhill skiing and boarding activities at the Purgatory ski resort and the event that launched Durango’s reputation as a cycling mecca: The Iron Horse Bicycle Classic.

The Snowdown winter festivities, Durango Independent Film Festival, and even Bayfield’s Sheep Festival are just a sampling of the activities that add sparks to life in La Plata County.

THE DURANGO CITY GOVERNMENT

The City of Durango was incorporated in 1881 and since 1912 has been a home rule city with a council-manager form of government. The government operates under the authority of the City Charter which essentially acts as the constitution for the City. Under this form of government, the eligible electors of Durango elect five residents as members of the City Council to represent them and serve as the legislative and policy-making authority for the City. The City Council is then required by City Charter to appoint a City Manager to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the City and to act as the Chief Administrative Officer. The City Manager ensures that the organization carries out the policies and goals of the City Council.

The City Manager plans, directs, manages, oversees and assumes full management responsibility for all City operations including: General Government, Streets, Engineering, Parks and Recreation, Finance, City Clerk, Human Resources, Community Development, Public Safety, Library, and General Services as well as Water, Sewer, Sustainable Services, Airport, and Transportation Services Enterprise Funds.

The City of Durango has 353 allocated full-time positions and employs approximately 800 seasonal and part-time employees. The City's Operating Fund Expenditures total $87,57 million for FY2020.

Durango’s City Manager has been a stable position. In fact, the City has had only two managers in nearly forty years.

MAJOR CHALLENGES

- In mid-October 2019, the Acting City Manager was made aware of the possible misappropriation of funds by the Finance Director. The Finance Director immediately resigned. The Colorado Bureau of Investigations is currently conducting a criminal investigation into this matter.

- The timing of these events corresponded with the presentation of the 2020 annual budget to the Council. The Acting City Manager and the Acting Finance Director were faced with explaining the budget rationale and detail while not being fully involved with its development. Perceived and actual errors in the budget led to its delayed adoption and criticism of City operations.

- In the aftermath of the above recent and well-publicized negative events, the next City Manager will need to focus both on restoring the public’s trust in the City government and on restoring staff’s previously high morale.
The Council stated that it has “a goal to enhance the public trust and the City is working diligently to ensure all City operations are conducted in a manner to maintain this trust.” An integral part of this process would be a review of the current organizational structure and staffing levels.

- Economic challenges include the need for affordable housing for all and the need for the development of good-paying jobs and business diversification.
- The organization needs to build and/or enhance functional expertise in several key areas.
- Managing the inherent growing pains of no longer being a small town and functioning as a small city.
- Build on the blessings of and manage the curses of being a remote location

Other Challenges
- In September 2019, the Council adopted its goals for 2019-2020. Those goals represent the five major areas of Council concern and strategies for addressing those concerns. See page 5 for City Council Goals.

   F. Foster community trust by demonstrating open & transparent governance

   G. Create a high-quality communications program to foster awareness in the community

• Current capital projects under consideration include challenges related to the Police Department operating out of a former car dealership offering a confusing and inefficient office maze and challenges around the need for a new water treatment plant.
