City Council Finalizes Contract with New City Manager

Durango, CO: At the special City Council meeting on September 4, 2020, City Council approved a final contract with José Madrigal for the permanent City Manager position. Mr. Madrigal's contract commences September 14, and he anticipates his first day in Durango to be September 21.

"We are very excited to bring José's experience and guidance to the City of Durango during these challenging times," said Mayor Dean Brookie, "we look forward to José and his family becoming part of our Community."

"I want to thank the City Council for their support and trust. I am eagerly looking forward to working with them and the City staff," Madrigal said. "During the interview process I was impressed with just how special the community is and how talented the City Staff are. The Community has already been so welcoming to my family and I and we are thrilled to call Durango home."
