NEWS RELEASE

Sign Up for Youth Ice Skating School or Youth House Hockey League

Durango, CO: Chapman Youth Ice Skating School is offering skating lesson for ages three to 18. Ice skating classes are great way to get more comfortable on the ice and are the first step in a progression toward figure skating and hockey. Various options are available to accommodate different schedules and skill levels. Find schedules and details here.

Durango Youth House Hockey League is a skills base program for ages five to 14. Players practice in a competitive teaching environment with qualified coaching staff, managed through USA Hockey's American Development Model (ADM). Youth in this program develop a solid foundation of skills needed to advance to the next level. The program will offer an in-house tournament. Each player will receive practice and game sweaters to use throughout the season. Skaters can join at any time during the season. Find season schedule and details here.

Information about all programs at Chapman Hill Ice Rink is available at DurangoGov.org/recprograms. Register for programs at DurangoGov.org/register4rec or at the Recreation Center, Chapman Hill or Durango Gymnastics. For more information, call (970) 375-7395.
