NEWS RELEASE

Fire district to host public forum on new station downtown

Durango, CO: The Durango Fire Protection District has scheduled a public forum from 6 to 8 p.m., on Thursday, March 10, regarding the district's plans for a new fire station located at the Durango School District 9R administration building.

The forum will be in-person at the administration building located at 201 E. 12th St. A viewable live stream will be available from the fire district website, durangofire.org. All questions must be pre-submitted online by Tuesday, March 8.

The agenda also includes a presentation from Chief Hal Doughty.

The fire district proposes to create a new fire station on the property. Fire district administration offices would be located in the current 9R administration building. The Big Picture High School building is planned on being razed and replaced with a new bay and crew quarters.
